24 February 1958

Dear Tschering:

I enclose herewith a check for $300 to cover your salary for the period 1-15 January 1958.

Your friend the accountant has been sick with Asian flu and pneumonia, so the final accounting of your expenses was delayed two weeks. She is back on the job now however, and I hope to have the final settlement for you next week.

I hope this finds you and your family well and happy, and that you all survived the snow storm o.k. The snow really created quite a lot of chaos around here. I'll write you again next week.
